

Dear Aunt Mary.

We are all safe & sound. Garrison is in the City goal for safety. Mr Thompson is not in town. I shall come out in the stage tomorrow night, if no chance presents. There have been very thrilling scenes going on here but I can tell you better than I can write. In the midst of all, Garrison behaved like an angel. We were well supported in our minds. and all is now well. Do not any of you be alarmed. Tell my mother to be of good cheer.

I will attend to the commands relative to money. I am in great haste, so can write no more but you will see me on Friday night. Ever yours
Anne.

Thursday afternoon.
